

12TH ANNUAL KING RICHARD'S FAIRE

DISCOVER THE REALM

Forget your modern-day worries twentieth century people. Step back with us to an era long, long ago in a kingdom far, far away. Lose yourself in the wonder and merriment of King Richard's Faire — A Return to the Renaissance.

Stroll along shady woodland paths and view hand-crafted marvels produced for your delight. Actually witness the creation of most wondrous crafts and wares as artisans demonstrate their skills. Purchase one of these fine items as a remembrance of your journey. Sample the sumptuous food and drink offered by Richard's chefs. Enjoy continuous performances by hundreds of talented townsfolk — everything from a production of Shakespeare's As You Like It to the Beggar's hilarious antics. Thrill to the daring and danger of live jousts. Join the Citizens of the Realm in celebration of the Renaissance.

King Richard's Faire is a theatrical interpretation of a period 400 years ago. The Renaissance (French for re-birth) was a time of rediscovery and awakening from the Dark Ages; a time of exploration, romance and adventure; a time of great writing and creativity; a striving for knowledge and immortality. All of this can be found at the faire.

King Richard's Faire exists for your pleasure and entertainment. Experience the Renaissance and see why we still celebrate its gifts. Discover the fantasies. Join in the festivities. King Richard bids you hail and welcome!!!

1984

12th Annual 1984
KING RICHARD'S FAIRE

ORDER of the REVELS

|       | KING'S STAGE                                 | QUEEN'S STAGE                           | DANCE STAGE                                        | COTTAGE STAGE                   | SUNGARDEN MUSIC STAGE              | MINSTRELS' GLEN STAGE                      | STORY TELLERS' STAGE     | GYPSY'S COVE                |
|-------|----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 10:30 | Dick Darby and his pal Mick                  | Corin and Mopsa                         | Queen's Dance Company with Sungarden               | Apprentice Improvisation Class  | Arianwen harp                      | Celtic Stone                               | Brother Donald           | Punch and Judy Puppet Place |
| 11:00 | Smee and Blogg the Singing Executioners      | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Dinara and Ali                                     | Apprentice Improvisation Class  | Arianwen                           | Sticks & Stones Stilt Dancing              | Peggoty                  | Gypsy Dance                 |
| 11:30 | Alechino has a Baby Commedia del Arte        | History and Adventures of Tom Thumb     | Queen's Dance Company with Congress Brass Ensemble | Maelen ApDafydd Minstrel        | Sungarden minstrels                | Barbara Allen The Tinker MacLea            | Special Event            | Mud Show                    |
| 12:00 | Brass Concentus                              | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Gypsy Dance                                        | Sing a merry song with Peggoty  | Dick Darby and his pal Mick        | Michael's Mastery of Mixed-up Manipulation | Arianwen                 | Puppet Place                |
| 12:30 | Royal Proclamation                           | Grand Processional                      | Dinara and Ali                                     | The Bawdy Beggar Girls          | Maelen Apdadydd hammered dulcimer  | Elves of the Green World                   | Grand Processional       | Grand Processional          |
| 1:00  | Command Performance                          | 'Tis the Talk of the Realm              | Join the Puppet Pageant                            | Join the Puppet Pageant         | Sing a merry song with Peggoty     | Celtic Stone                               | Special Event            | Puppet Place                |
| 1:30  | Madison Renaissance Consort                  | Why Old Women Love Rice                 | Gypsy Dance                                        | Arianwen Harp                   | Brass Concentus                    | History and Adventures of Tom Thumb        | Tales of Richard's Realm | Moxie Puppets               |
| 2:00  | Smee and Blogg the Singing Executioners      | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Dinara and Ali                                     | Rustic Revel                    | Sungarden                          | Sticks & Stones Stilts                     | Brother Donald           | Mud Show                    |
| 2:30  | Rolo Polo Juggler                            | Special Events                          | Gypsy Dance                                        | Barbara Allen The Tinker MacLea | The Bawdy Beggar Girls and Friends | Brass Concentus                            | Moxie Puppets            | Puppet Place                |
| 3:00  | Alechino has a Baby Commedia del Arte        | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Dinara and Ali                                     | Special Events                  | Sungarden                          | Sticks & Stones Stilts                     | Special Event            | King's Storytelling         |
| 3:30  | Showcase                                     | Smee and Blogg the Singing Executioners | Special Event Join the Fun                         | Join the Maypole Dance          | Arianwen                           | Congress Brass Ensemble                    | Dick Darby               | Puppet Place                |
| 4:00  | Celtic Stone Minstrels                       | Juggling School                         | Command Performance                                | Rustic Revel                    | Sungarden                          | Brass Concentus                            | Moxie Puppets            | Showcase                    |
| 4:30  | The Don Juan and Miguel Show                 | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Gypsy Dance                                        | Rustic Revel                    | Chaos & Excitement                 | The Fisherman and His Wife Stilts          | Arianwen                 | Puppet Place                |
| 5:00  | Queen's Dance Company and Brass Concentus    | History and Adventures of Tom Thumb     | Human Chess Game                                   | Barbara Allen The Tinker MacLea | Special Event                      | Sticks & Stones Stilts                     | Brother Donald           | Mud Show                    |
| 5:30  | Dinara and Ali Middle Eastern Dancing        | Smee and Blogg the Singing Executioners | Queen's Dance Company with Congress Brass Ensemble | Malcolm & Martha Muddridge      | Dick Darby and his pal Mick        | Moxie Puppets                              | Special Event            |                             |
| 6:00  | Alechino has a Baby Commedia del Arte        | Tom Tremont Magic                       | Michael's Mastery of Mixed-up Manipulation         | Mistress Anne's Dilemma         | Off to the Music Fest              | Music Fest                                 |                          |                             |
| 6:30  | Join the Festivities in the Minstrel's Glen! |                                         |                                                    |                                 |                                    | KING'S REVEL                               |                          |                             |

SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS

HANLON-LEES ACTION THEATER

Jousting
Tiltyard

11:30, 1:50, & 5:30

BEGGAR'S MUD SHOWS

Gypsy's Cove

11:30, 2:00, & 5:00

PIRATE'S REVEL

Crow's Nest

4:30

COLLEGE OF WIZARDS

"The Sorcerer's Gambit"

1:00

Demon Summoning

11:00 & 6:00

PUPPET PAGEANT

"St. George & the Dragon"

Allen's Dale

1:00

CAMEL RACE

Tiltyard

4:00

HUMAN CHESS

GAME

Dance Stage

5:00

VIDEOTAPE POLICY

The use of videotape equipment is strictly forbidden without the expressed consent of the Producers.

WEAPONS POLICY

Any weapons (swords, daggers or wooden swords) used as an accessory to a costume must be sheathed at all times while on the Faire site. If purchased from a merchant, it must be packaged in such a manner as to discourage use.

Romancing the

EPISODE I: WE SING OF LOVE AND TROUBLE

Hero Harry gallantly showers Queen Katherine with pledges of unwavering love and loyalty . . . and Wolmsley proclaims it high treason! Harry must meet a series of terribly difficult challenges, or lose his life. King Richard sets the first task: "I must know something that no king has ever known before . . . or else!!!"

Harry enlists the help of his close friends: Cricket the Court Jester; the Queen's scrappy handmaiden Lady Gwendolyn; and Robert of Woodstock, Court Balladeer. Hundreds of minstrels, madrigal singers, consorts, courtly and country dancers, and even gypsies are gathered for the Festival of Music and Dance. Will the outpouring of creativity help Harry meet the challenge? Ballad contests, dance exhibitions . . . the Realm rings with the sounds of revelry! But . . . will Wolmsley close the Festival down? Harry needs help from his friends!

JULY 7, 8, 14, 15

EPISODE II: INVENTING ROMANCE

Harry must now meet the second challenge — King Richard wants to do something no king has ever done before!

The King decrees the Festival of Imagination and Invention. The keenest minds of the age flock to the Realm. Luminaries such as William Shakespeare, Catherine de Medici, Nostradamus and many more enlighten the kingdom. The great Leonardo da Vinci himself tries to help Harry and his friends. But who is this Belladonna Doria — the coolly glamorous sorceress who claims to have a hold on Harry? The Realm crackles with wisdom, wit and invention as Wolmsley rages. Come see the great minds of the Renaissance . . . and some astonishing inventions!

JULY 21, 22, 28, 29

| FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND DANCE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | FESTIVAL OF IMAGINATION AND INVENTION                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Old Town Renaissance ConsortJuly 7 & 14 King's Stage 1:00July 7 & 14 Queen's Stage 2:30July 7 & 14 Arden Stage 4:30July 7 & 14 Storytelling Stage 5:30HromovytsiaJuly 14 & 15 Arden Stage 12:00July 14 Arden Stage 5:00July 15 Arden Stage 5:30NarodnoJuly 15 King's Stage 1:00July 8 Dance Stage 3:30The Merry MinstrelsRich Fammeree and Paula MillerJuly 7 through 15Storytelling Stage 11:30, 1:30 & 3:00Dance WorkshopsDance Stage 3:30July 7 & 14 Old Town Renaissance ConsortJuly 15 HromovytsiaArden StageJuly 8 & 15 Narodno 4:30July 7 & 8 Viata Romaneasca 5:30July 14 Hromovytsia 5:30 | New Renaissance SingersJuly 7, 8, 14 & 15 Storytelling Stage 1:00July 7, 14 & 15 Arden Stage 2:00July 8 & 15 Queen's Stage 2:30July 8 & 15 Storytelling Stage 5:30Viata RomaneascaJuly 7 Arden Stage 12:00July 8 King's Stage 1:00July 8 Arden Stage 2:00July 7 Arden Stage 5:00ContestsThe Cottage 3:00July 7 & 14 Dance ContestJuly 8 & 15 Ballad ContestCommand PerformanceDance Stage 4:00ALSOThe Marriage of Lord Michael and Lady DianeJuly 15 The Cottage 11:00King Richard's Summer GamesSaturday Bogside Downs 2:30Fairegoers are invited to vie for Special Grand Prize | "Great Minds to the Rescue"with the Jolly Players,written and directed byEric ForsbergKing's Stage 1:00Arden Stage 5:00Marvelous Magicwith Roy Imwie & Carol GoffQueen's Stage 2:30Arden Stage 12:00 & 2:00Master William ShakespeareSpecial Guest of the RealmThe Cottage 3:00Storytelling Stage 1:00Improvisation GamesDance Stage 3:30 | Command PerformanceDance Stage 4:00The Merry MinstrelsRichard Fammeree and Paula MillerStorytelling Stage 11:30, 1:30 & 3:00See King Richard Do something no king has ever done before!Arden Stage 4:30ALSOHighland Park MadrigalsSpecial Guest on July 21King Richard's Summer GamesBogside Downs 2:30 SaturdayFairegoers are invited to vie for Special Grand Prize. |

Meet these characters at the Opening of the Gates (10:15); see them challenged at the Royal Proclamation on the King's Stage (12:30); thrill to each day's outcome (4:30, Canopy or Arden Stage); and join the entire Court for the King's Revel (6:30, Minstrel's Glen).

Romancing the

EPISODE I: WE SING OF LOVE AND TROUBLE

Hero Harry gallantly showers Queen Katherine with pledges of unwavering love and loyalty . . . and Wolmsley proclaims it high treason! Harry must meet a series of terribly difficult challenges, or lose his life. King Richard sets the first task: "I must know something that no king has ever known before . . . or else!!!"

Harry enlists the help of his close friends: Cricket the Court Jester; the Queen's scrappy handmaiden Lady Gwendolyn; and Robert of Woodstock, Court Balladeer. Hundreds of minstrels, madrigal singers, consorts, courtly and country dancers, and even gypsies are gathered for the Festival of Music and Dance. Will the outpouring of creativity help Harry meet the challenge? Ballad contests, dance exhibitions . . . the Realm rings with the sounds of revelry! But . . . will Wolmsley close the Festival down? Harry needs help from his friends!

JULY 7, 8, 14, 15

EPISODE II: INVENTING ROMANCE

Harry must now meet the second challenge — King Richard wants to do something no king has ever done before!

The King decrees the Festival of Imagination and Invention. The keenest minds of the age flock to the Realm. Luminaries such as William Shakespeare, Catherine de Medici, Nostradamus and many more enlighten the kingdom. The great Leonardo da Vinci himself tries to help Harry and his friends. But who is this Belladonna Doria — the coolly glamorous sorceress who claims to have a hold on Harry? The Realm crackles with wisdom, wit and invention as Wolmsley rages. Come see the great minds of the Renaissance . . . and some astonishing inventions!

JULY 21, 22, 28, 29

| Festival Of Music And Dance           |                      |       | Festival Of Imagination And Invention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                    |       |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------|-------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|-------|
| Old Town Renaissance Consort          |                      |       | New Renaissance Singers                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                    |       |
| July 7 & 14                           | King's Stage         | 1:00  | July 7, 8,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                    |       |
| July 7 & 14                           | Queen's Stage        | 2:30  | 14 & 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Storytelling Stage | 1:00  |
| July 7 & 14                           | Arden Stage          | 4:30  | July 7, 14 & 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Arden Stage        | 2:00  |
| July 7 & 14                           | Storytelling Stage   | 5:30  | July 8 & 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Queen's Stage      | 2:30  |
|                                       |                      |       | July 8 & 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Storytelling Stage | 5:30  |
| Hromovytsia                           |                      |       | Viata Romaneasca                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                    |       |
| July 14 & 15                          | Arden Stage          | 12:00 | July 7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Arden Stage        | 12:00 |
| July 14                               | Arden Stage          | 5:00  | July 8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | King's Stage       | 1:00  |
| July 15                               | Arden Stage          | 5:30  | July 8                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Arden Stage        | 2:00  |
|                                       |                      |       | July 7                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Arden Stage        | 5:00  |
| Narodno                               |                      |       | Contests                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                    |       |
| July 15                               | King's Stage         | 1:00  | The Cottage 3:00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                    |       |
| July 8                                | Dance Stage          | 3:30  | July 7 & 14                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Dance Contest      |       |
|                                       |                      |       | July 8 & 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Ballad Contest     |       |
| The Merry Minstrels                   |                      |       | Command Performance                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                    |       |
| Rich Fammeree and Paula Miller        |                      |       | Dance Stage 4:00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                    |       |
| July 7 through 15                     |                      |       | ALSO                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                    |       |
| Storytelling Stage 11:30, 1:30 & 3:00 |                      |       | The Marriage of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | Lord Michael and Lady Diane                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | July 15 The Cottage 11:00                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | King Richard's Summer Games                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | Saturday Bogside Downs 2:30                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | Fairegoers are invited to vie for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       | Special Grand Prize                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                    |       |
| Dance Workshops                       |                      |       | Meet these characters at the Opening of the Gates (10:15);see them challenged at theRoyal Proclamation on the King's Stage (12:30);thrill to each day's outcome (4:30, Canopy or Arden Stage);and join the entire Courtfor the King's Revel (6:30, Minstrel's Glen). |                    |       |
| Dance Stage 3:30                      |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| July 7 & 14                           | Old Town Renaissance |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| July 15                               | Consort              |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       | Hromovytsia          |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| Arden Stage                           |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| July 8 & 15                           | Narodno              | 4:30  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| July 7 & 8                            | Viata Romaneasca     | 5:30  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
| July 14                               | Hromovytsia          | 5:30  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |
|                                       |                      |       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                    |       |

As celebration and song ring through the Realm, King Richard announces a new chancellor! — a man of moral magnificence, the most righteous Mortimer Wolmsley.

Enter our Hero — the dashing gentleman privateer Harry Fitzroy. Will the Queen and her Handmaiden both fall madly in love with Harry? Will the King notice? Will Wolmsley purge all festivity from the Realm? Will rabble revolt? See all four episodes of Romancing the Throne . . . a splendid sylvan tale of love, bravado and impossibly high standards.

Throne

by Doug Frew and Patti McKenny

EPISODE III: IN SEARCH OF HIS EXCELLENCY

For the third challenge, His Majesty wants to go somewhere he's never been before . . . without leaving the Kingdom! Thank goodness it's the Festival of Folklore and Fantasy — it seems as if only magic can save Harry.

Enter the most mystical marvel of the mysterious mideast — Ali Ben Drahma, wondrous magician. He announces that he will send Richard somewhere where no king has gone before . . . and the King disappears! But when Ali Ben tries to bring him back, he finds his magical powers blocked by some evil force! Where is the King? Is Belladonna Doria responsible? And why does Wolmsley look so satisfied?

Wizards, magicians, storytellers, sorcerers, sprites, elves and wondrous beings join forces for the great conflict: Duelling Sorcerers! Don't miss the King's dramatic return . . . or the story of where he's been!

AUGUST 4, 5, 11, 12

| Festival Of Folklore And Fantasy                                                                                                                                                                              |  | CARNIVAL OF FOOLS                                                                                                                        |  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| "Silent Tales to Tell"Unicorn Mime Ensemblefeaturing Robert C. CarltonKing's Stage 1:00Arden Stage 4:30                                                                                       |  | Most Foolish ContestKing's Stage 1:00                                                                                                |  |
| Whoppers ContestTell the best exaggerated tale —Win cash awardsAlso for Children under 10"Where's the King?"(Special prize for all contestantsin this category)Queen's Stage 2:30 |  | ShowcaseQueen's Stage 2:30                                                                                                           |  |
| An Afternoonwith Mother GooseMother Goose.....Carol Ann PigginsStorytelling Stage 1:00, 3:00 & 5:30                                                                                               |  | "Mistress Anne's Challenge"Rollicking contestsbetween the residentsof the Cottageand the Crow's NestThe Cottage 3:00 |  |
| ApprenticeShowcase PerformanceArden Stage (August 11 & 12) 5:00                                                                                                                                       |  | Battle of the WitlessDance Stage 3:30                                                                                                |  |
| Mime Workshopwith Robert C. CarltonDance Stage 3:30                                                                                                                                                   |  | Command PerformanceDance Stage 4:00                                                                                                  |  |
| Command PerformanceDance Stage 4:00                                                                                                                                                                       |  | ShowcaseStorytelling Stage 11:30 & 3:00                                                                                              |  |
| ALSOFinal Competitionsfor King Richard's Summer GamesBogside Downs 2:30 Saturday                                                                                                                  |  | "Mistress Anne's Challengeis Given!"Storytelling Stage 1:00                                                                      |  |
| Heigh Ho, Through Love And Through TroubleThis Song From The People Will Ring Through The Air,So Stand All Together, Loyal Forever,And Sing How We Bring To King Richard The Faire.               |  | Sir Benji's Hound ShowCash Awards in All CategoriesArden Stage 4:30                                                              |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | Foot RaceAround Allen's Dale(Starting Point)Storytelling Stage 5:30                                                          |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | ApprenticeShowcase PerformanceArden Stage 5:00                                                                                   |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | Competitive Run 2:30Preliminary                                                                                                      |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | Demonstrations 3:30featuring the exhibition of a strangecreature from the New World!                                             |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | Competitive Run 4:30Finals                                                                                                           |  |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                               |  | Bogside Downs Racecourse                                                                                                                 |  |

As celebration and song ring through the Realm, King Richard announces a new chancellor! — a man of moral magnificence, the most righteous Mortimer Wolmsley.

Enter our Hero — the dashing gentleman privateer Harry Fitzroy. Will the Queen and her Handmaiden both fall madly in love with Harry? Will the King notice? Will Wolmsley purge all festivity from the Realm? Will rabble revolt? See all four episodes of Romancing the Throne . . . a splendid sylvan tale of love, bravado and impossibly high standards.

Throne

by Doug Frew and Patti McKenny

EPISODE III: IN SEARCH OF HIS EXCELLENCY

For the third challenge, His Majesty wants to go somewhere he's never been before . . . without leaving the Kingdom! Thank goodness it's the Festival of Folklore and Fantasy — it seems as if only magic can save Harry.

Enter the most mystical marvel of the mysterious mideast — Ali Ben Drahma, wondrous magician. He announces that he will send Richard somewhere where no king has gone before . . . and the King disappears! But when Ali Ben tries to bring him back, he finds his magical powers blocked by some evil force! Where is the King? Is Belladonna Doria responsible? And why does Wolmsley look so satisfied?

Wizards, magicians, storytellers, sorcerers, sprites, elves and wondrous beings join forces for the great conflict: Duelling Sorcerers! Don't miss the King's dramatic return . . . or the story of where he's been!

AUGUST 4, 5, 11, 12

EPISODE IV: THE REALM STRIKES BACK

Trouble is brewing; the citizens are tense as Wolmsley rampages through the Realm condemning everything. It's at Wolmsley's suggestion that the King sets the final test for Harry: he must rid the Realm of riff-raff and rabble. But by Wolmsley's definition, this includes almost everyone. The King announces the Carnival of Fools. Is the hilarious Horse Show really testing the skills of Harry's horsemen? Is Sir Benji's Dog Show really to infiltrate Wolmsley's kennels? The Most Foolish Contest — is it actually an election that will choose the next Chancellor? Will the citizens revolt? Can Harry restore order? Will a final conflict be avoided, or will the end of Richard's 12th Faire witness a thawing of the unilateral freeze on catapults? Harry needs your help now . . .

AUGUST 18, 19

| FESTIVAL OF FOLKLORE AND FANTASY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | CARNIVAL OF FOOLS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| "Silent Tales to Tell"Unicorn Mime Ensemblefeaturing Robert C. CarltonKing's Stage 1:00Arden Stage 4:30 Whoppers ContestTell the best exaggerated tale —Win cash awardsAlso for Children under 10"Where's the King?"(Special prize for all contestantsin this category)Queen's Stage 2:30 Marvelous Magicwith Roy Imwie &amp; Carol GoffStorytelling Stage 11:30The Cottage 3:00 | An Afternoonwith Mother GooseMother Goose.....Carol Ann PigginsStorytelling Stage 1:00, 3:00 &amp; 5:30 ApprenticeShowcase PerformanceArden Stage (August 11 &amp; 12) 5:00 Mime Workshopwith Robert C. CarltonDance Stage 3:30 Command PerformanceDance Stage 4:00 ALSOFinal Competitionsfor King Richard's Summer GamesBogside Downs 2:30 Saturday | Most Foolish ContestKing's Stage 1:00 ShowcaseQueen's Stage 2:30 "Mistress Anne's Challenge"Rollicking contestsbetween the residentsof the Cottageand the Crow's NestThe Cottage 3:00 Battle of the WitlessDance Stage 3:30 Command PerformanceDance Stage 4:00 ShowcaseStorytelling Stage 11:30 &amp; 3:00 "Mistress Anne's Challengeis Given!"Storytelling Stage 1:00 Sir Benji's Hound ShowCash Awards in All CategoriesArden Stage 4:30 | Foot RaceAround Allen's Dale(Starting Point)Storytelling Stage 5:30 ApprenticeShowcase PerformanceArden Stage 5:00  KING RICHARD'SSTEEPLE RUNAND HORSE SHOW Competitive Run 2:30Preliminary Demonstrations 3:30featuring the exhibition of a strangecreature from the New World! Competitive Run 4:30Finals Bogside Downs Racecourse  |

Heigh Ho, Through Love And Through Trouble
This Song From The People Will Ring Through The Air,
So Stand All Together, Loyal Forever,
And Sing How We Bring To King Richard The Faire.

MERCHANTS OF THE REALM

1. Glassblowing
Rick Dodson
Austin, TX
2. Footwear/Leather
Footloose
Moccasins
Steve DeGouvia
Aspen, CO
3. Fancy Hats
Cheryl Elms
Lyons, IL
4. Woolen Wear/
Dried Flowers,
Comforters,
Pub Games/Lace
Maker Lamps
Wales Wool
Shoppe
Griswold/Plano
Milwaukee, WI
5. Bronze Jewelry/
Sculptures
Harry Ristow
Fort Pierce, FL
6. Wood Sculptures
Robert Wazelle
Longwood, FL
- 7&8. Feather/Leather
Lynn Horist
Magnolia, TX
9. Jewelry
Tori Johnston
Minneapolis, MN
10. Weapons
Angel Sword
Gennieve Watson
Wimberly, TX
11. Custom Knives/
Wooden Swords
& Shields
Robert Sharp
Sharp Custom
Knives
Anoka, MN
12. Sand Relief
Sculptures
Langford "Bill"
Moon
Austin, TX
13. Pottery
Paul Corbin
Rockcreek Pottery
Stanwood, IA
14. Jewelry
Guilt and Lust
Albert Landa
Austin, TX
15. Ceramic Artcloth
Sculpture
Steve Batson
Salem, WI
16. Wooden Boxes/
Pyramids
Gene Cody
Austin, TX
17. Chess Games and Boards
Batznepper
Emporium
Steve Batson
Salem, WI
18. Wooden Signs/
Houseboards
Susan Winter
Plainfield, IL
19. Leather
Debbie Dunn
Chicago, IL
20. Clay Figures/
Sculptures
Feelings Gallery
Ken Villimec
21. Stoneware
Pottery/Porcelain
Jill Grau-Denesi
Northbrook, IL
22. Tarot Reading
Anne Spencer
Wheaton, IL
23. Clay Figures/
Sculptures
White Wizards
Don E. White
Austin, TX
24. Pottery
R. J. Delwaide
Arlington, TX
25. Flower Garlands
Puncochar/
McCauley*
House of Flowers
Austin, TX
**In fond memory of our friend Charles who passed away
April 1984*
26. Handpainted
Wooden Products
Odell/Jeanne
Grant
Austin, TX
27. Bamboo Flutes
William Miller
Check, VA
28. Wildlife Paintings
Diana Thurmon
Luburn, GA
29. Candle Making/
Sandcast Candles
Jane Pittatis
Chicago, IL
30. Portraits
Rose Ludford
Lake Villa, IL
31. Tie Dye Products
Robert Sagen
Skokie, IL
32. Pottery
Whole Earth
Clay Works
Tom Cerny
Racine, WI
33. Flags
Glen Voeltz
Maywood, IL
34. Dungeon
Peter Bradbury
Lake Zurich, IL
36. Wooden Swords/
Shields
Frank/Rene
Parker
Union Lake, MN
37. Sheepskin
Products
Golden Fleece
Bill Crowe
Chicago, IL
38. Fibre/Straw
Weavings
Compton/Perry
S. Milwaukee, WI
39. Bronze Jewelry/
Sculptures
Rainmaker
David Dardis
Makanda, IL
40. Functional Pottery
Steve Kammerer
Sioux City, IA
41. Woodenware
Wizards Of Wood
Fuller/Foss
Edina, MN
42. Fantasy Art
Pat Greeding/
Jackie Torres
Austin, TX
43. Clothing
Jim Johnston
Del Mar, CA
44. Massage Tools
Ron Workman
Leonardo de
Dummie
Turtle Lake, WI
45. Wood Items
Glen Voeltz
Maywood, IL
46. Leatherwork
Dennis Thatcher
New Lennox, IL

47. Portraits
Lady Ellida
Sutton-Freyer
Chicago, IL

48. Copper Mail/Feather Masks
Masques, Mail & Magic
Spencer/Fortuin
Wheaton, IL

49. Leather Work
Shelly Kite-Auble
Libertyville, IL

50. Coin Jewlery/
Clay Dragons
Janet Carraro
Chicago, ILL

51. Jewelry
The Silver Lady
Dorothy Susman
Wimberly, TX

52. Papermaking
Arnold Grummer
Appleton, WI

53. Masks
Michael Cauley
Oklahoma

54. Children's Costume Rental
Actor's Costume
Co.
Donna Marr
Chicago, IL

55. Stained Glass
Pots and Panes
Hamm, Wood and Holmes
Salem, WI

56. Woodburn
Etchings
Larry Brown
Madison, WI

57. Leatherwork
Don Rupard
Raleigh, NC

58. Suspended
Shelves
Don Hulke
Wheaton, IL

59. Crystal Items
Rainbow Mobile
Maker
Jeff Woodruff
Austin, TX

60. Leatherwork
Liza Nydes
Naples, FL

61. Woodenware
Out of the Ordinary
Michael Albrecht
Milwaukee, WI

62. Stained Glass
Rosalie Benzing
Ro's Colored
Glass
Milwaukee, WI

63. Lapidary
Flatrock
Jon Miller
Arlington Hts., IL

64. Leatherwork
East of Eden
Karin
Schaeffer-Miller
Arlington Hts., IL

65. Jewelry
William Howard
Stoughton, WI

66. Pottery
Coiner/Deneen
Minneapolis, MN

67. Astrologist
Irene Hughes
Chicago, IL

68. Woodenware
Scott Horist
Chicago, IL

69. Wooden Toys/
Puzzles/Games
Michael Opat
Whiting, IN

70. Tapestries/
Handwoven
David McCarthy
Eau Claire, WI

71. Jewelry
Voyagers
Herb & Becky
Redmond
Deerfield, WI

72. Fantasy Art
Michael & Regula
Rainey
Oak Park, IL

73. Batik/Clothing
Joel & Latifa
Tabachnick
Santa Fe, N.M.

74. Metal Sculptures
David & Mary
Palmer
Whitney, TX

75. Deerskin Clothing
Sandra Steinweg
Austin, TX

76. Wall Hangings/
Stained Glass
James Nelson
Grand Marsh, WI

77. Leatherwork
Ken & Gail
Wilson
Placerville, CA

78. Grapevine
Wreaths
Mimi & Robert
Christofferson
DeWitt, IA

79. Stained Glass
George &
Kathleen Kazda
Lombard, IL

80. Tole Painting/
Wooden Items
Donna Woody
Palos Hts., IL

81. Whistles
Vern Schmidt
Fairbault, MN

82. Bas Relief
Howie Ritter
Burnsville, MN

83. Pottery
Sundance
Stephen Wolfe
Naples, FL

84. Handwoven Dyed
Weavings/Pottery
Lisa Burnel
Verona, WI
Michael Ryan
Madison, WI

85. Tarot
Judy Simik
Antioch, IL

86. Grapevine
Wreaths
Moods of the Meadow
Mundschau/Hartig
Wales, WI

87. Leatherwork
Susanna Ruggieri
Oh Susanna
Minneapolis, MN

88. Psychic/
Astrologist
Phyllis Campbell
Rockford, IL

89. Clocks/Memory Books
House of Hastert
Minnetonka, MN

90. Moccasins/Boots
Bald Mountain
Moccasins
Sebastopol, CA

91. Calligraphy
Fran Huddleston
Des Plaines, IL

92. Dulcimers
Roderick Sheldon
Mole in the Ground
Wolverine, MI

93. Wood/Stained Glass
Pinetree
Enterprises
Norm Wendt
Berlin, WI

94. Carved Coin
Jewelry/Celtic Art
Mad Scotsman
Kenneth Bruce
Gibson
Triangle, VA

95. Portraits
Joan Lindner
Arlington Hts., IL

96. Pottery
Julia Sutton
Mount Horeb, IL

97. Pottery
The Village
Pottery
Richard Akers
Wheeling, IL

98. Woodenware
J. Jacob Snyder
Lake Bluff, IL

99. Clothing
Sharon Crystal
Los Angeles, CA

100. Bronze Waterfall
Sculptures
Jackie & Sharon
Macklin
Santa Cruz, CA

101. Woodcarvings
Jack Leslin
Belvidere, IL

102. Wooden Furniture/Toys/
Puzzles/Games
Steven Ciacco
Elgin, IL
Gerald Swendsen
Hanover Park, IL

103. Blacksmith
Don Esser
Waunakee, WI

104. Woodenware
Made on Earth
Michael Bezek
Watertown, MN

105. Marquetry
John Elms
Elk Grove
Village, IL

107. Cutting Boards
Boards by Joel
Jim Nelson
Prior Lake, MN

109. Stained Glass
Mystic Star
Rewolinski/
Scholotz
West Allis, WI

111. Wax Sculptured
Candles
Wizard Wax
Works
Rick Bedore
Middleton, WI

113. Children's Clothing
Sharon Crystal
Los Angeles, CA

115. Pewter
Hardware/Figures
Crane Pewter
Frederick Crane
Woodburn, IN

117. Wall Hangings/
Rugs
Joseph Kotalik
Berwyn, IL

119. Crochet Accents/
Drawings
Deena Joslin
Naperville, IL

121. Clay Figures
Richard & Pat
Chrest
Crete, IL

123. Stained Glass
Michael Hargas
Winter, WI

124. Crystal Items
Terry Uhlman
Caldwell, ID

127. Jewelry
Paul Hapip
Oakland, CA

129. Soft Sculptures
Gayle Rzanca
Romulus, MI

131. Plants/Fibre Art
Kathy Torkelson
Cambridge, WI

133. Functional Pottery
John Fisher
Boulder, CO

135. Jewelry
Many Moons
Don & Gloria
Zeitelhack
Tomahawk, WI

137. Hair Ornaments
Marcella Kane
Chicago, IL

139. Canvas Chairs
John Coiner
Minneapolis, MN

141. Nature Products/
Candy/Toys
Kris Kristine
Barrington, IL

143. Jesters/Masks
Just In Jest
Gilbert/Kipple
Houston, TX

145. Brass Rubbings
Bill Farnham
Hanover Park, IL

147. Clothing
Maids of Fabric
Farnham/
DeMichelis
Chicago, IL

149. Paintings-Prints/
Castles
Lynette Wright
Chicago, IL

150. Ceramic House/
Stained Glass
Witches Three
Haller, Harper,
Hilbert
Loveland, OH

151. Portraits
Lynn Philyaw
Lake Forest, IL

152. Children's Headpieces
Rayla Brunet
Austin, TX

✠ Facepainting
Tom Konrath
Chicago, IL

☾ Gail Preisler
Minneapolis, MN

★ Sandy Witkowski
Chicago, IL

152. Feather Art
Flowering Feather
Robert Sorenson
Dassel, MN

153. Pottery
Ken LeBarre
Highland, WI

154. Wooden Toys/
Puzzles/Games
Mike Poisson
Bloomington, MN

155. Basketweaving
Roger Behm
Janesville, WI

156. Functional Pottery
Lynn & Sandi
Obertin
Kenosha, WI

157. Woodenware
Steven McLean
Bloomington, MN

158. Clay Figures/
Sculptures
Stephen Baldauf
Sauk Village, IL

159. Handcarved
Products/Carts
Max Bueschel
Fredonia, WI

160. Wooden Furniture/
Products
John Daly
Makanda, IL

† Archery
Audrey Simek
Northbrook, IL

☾ King's Foundry
King's Foundry
Hanson, Babusec,
Padgett
Antioch, IL

REMEMBRANCE SHOPPE

In Richard's kingdom, there is a place dedicated to the commemoration of your day in the Realm. T-SHIRTS (worn by the most loyal subjects), PEWTERLIKE TANKARDS (to keep icy cold the memory of a toast), FILM (to capture the face of a child knighted by the King), and POSTERS (to let the Kingdom dance upon your wall) . . . all await you to help you remember your day at the Faire long after the sun has set over the land.

Located near the front gates of the Kindom, His Majesty's Remembrance Shoppe beckons to each visitor to the Realm.

FOOD & DRINK

Wander through the kingdom and tempt your senses with a regal array of delicacies from another time. All food and drink is prepared with the finest of ingredients, as commanded by the King. As King Richard decreed in days of yore, he decrees this day — Partake in these goodly delights prepared for your pleasure!

OH MORA, OH TEMPURA

The realm's freshest vegetables swaddled in sweet batter and deep-fried. Exquisite!

CORNISH COVE

Flaky pasties stuffed with fresh vegetables, cheese and aromatic spices, served piping hot!

FEAST OF FOWL

Hearty legs of turkey, roasted to perfection over hot coals.

KING'S RIBS

Fit for a royal appetite, these lean, large ribs are slowly cooked for tenderness, then dipped into a mouth-watering sauce.

BEEF KABOBS

Plump pieces of steak marinated for hours with sweet peppers and onions.

POLISH SAUSAGE

Succulent sausages, graced with sweet peppers and onions, on a crusty roll.

ROAST BEEF

Tenderest beef, au jus, nestled on a crusty Italian roll.

KING'S BRAT AND BREW

The good sausage-makers finest, served as you like it, with or without saurkraut.

KING'S PUB AND EATERY

A hunter's favorite — Tender Cornish hens and barbequed rabbits roasted over an open pit fire.

POPOVERS

Queen's delight — Honey butter, iced cream or creamed cheese fill these flake-pastry treats.

CREPES DE VERSAILLES

The legacy of La Belle France — Delicate crepes topped with iced cream and luscious fresh fruit.

FUNNEL CAKES

Pastry fit for the angels — delicate puffed cakes to melt in your mouth.

ICE CREAM FRAPPES

Frothy fresh fruit drinks, cool and sweet as a spring.

ICED CREAM CANTELOUPE

Luscious canteloupe fruits heaped with iced cream and garnished with exotic sweet dark chocolate.

LITTLE JOHN'S COOKIES

Hearty cookies, generously sized — the Big Man himself would fall for these.

CANTERBURY APPLE CIDER

PEPSI COLA

ICE CREAM ICED COFFEE

SPARKLING CATAWBA WINE

HOT COFFEE

BAKED POTATOES

Hefty potatoes, a farmer's pride — baked to perfection and crowned with delicious toppings.

PICKLES ON A STICK

Crisp pickles, served icy cold for munching — Her Majesty's delight.

EGG ROLLS

Giant egg rolls with the lure of the Orient — stuffed with shrimp and drizzled with apricot sauce.

CHEESE BALLS

Our dairyman's masterpiece — Cheese, deep-fried in a special batter, served with an assortment of delightful sauces.

FLAVORED POPPED CORN

Chocolate, cinnamon, cheese or fresh butter adorns fluffy, fresh-popped corn.

EARS OF KORN

Plump flavorful ears of corn, turned to perfection and drenched in sweet creamery butter.

SASSAFRAS (made fresh from sassafras root)

LEONARDO'S LEMONADE
(3 locations)

ICED TEA (2 locations)

KING RICHARD'S KITCHENS

Fish n' Chips & Shrimp n' Chips

England's grand tradition — fresh fish, deep-fried for tenderness, served on a bed of curly fries and nestled into a cone.

Spud Curls

One whole potato, peeled into long strips, deep-fried and lightly salted.

Pizza n' Cheese

A lusty Mediterranean favorite, with succulent pieces of home-made sausage, served with peppers and onions, and rolled into a delicate shell of pizza bread.

English Fudge Cakes

Dark, sweet chocolate cakes, served warm — dipped in a hot fudge sauce.

Barbequed Ribs

Pork slowly smoked and simmered over the royal fires for a day.

Chicken Styx

Tender filets of chicken skewered and rolled in sesame seeds, served on a bed of curly fries.

Fruit Fondue

Cold crunchy fruit draped with dark chocolate.

Fruit and Cheese Platter

Fruit with large chunks of dairy fresh cheese.

AS YOU LIKE IT

By William Shakespeare

What happens when civilized people, used to the social conventions and conveniences of court life, must flee to the wilds of the Forest of Arden? Most of them have a wonderful time.

Join Rosalind, Celia, Orlando, Touchstone and the rest — some of Shakespeare's warmest and wittiest people — on their escape to the woods. Shepherds, philosophers, princesses, fools and nobles — all meet in the maze of romantic intrigue that is the Forest of Arden. Will true love find a way? Never fear . . . all will be just as you like it.

2:30
ARDEN STAGE

Rosalind ..... Queen Katherine
Jacques ..... Aurelius
Touchstone ..... Cricket
Celia ..... Lady Gwendolyn Carew
Orlando ..... Robert of Woodstock
Oliver ..... Michael "the Spike" Colley
LeBeau ..... Sir Percival Degage
Audrey ..... Maid of the Cottage
Charles, a wrestler ..... Figgy Pudding
Adam ..... Simon St. Albain
Sir Oliver Mar-Text ..... Fishmonger
Corin ..... Miguel Rodrigo Jesus Alfredo Estaban de Zaragosa
Silvius ..... Corin Fairfax
Phebe ..... Mopsa Fairfax
William a country fellow ..... Will'm Fairfax
Hymen ..... Rolo Polo
Amiens... Miguel Rodrigo Jesus Alfredo Estaban de Zaragosa
Duke Senior and
Duke Frederick ..... Lutilah Fairdinkum
Musicians
Maelen ApDafydd Martha & Malcolm

ARE YOU THE BRAVEST IN THE LAND?

King Richard has decreed a new Gaming Glen! The games are designed for the bravest visitors to the Realm. To succeed you must have bravery, skill . . . and just a little luck.

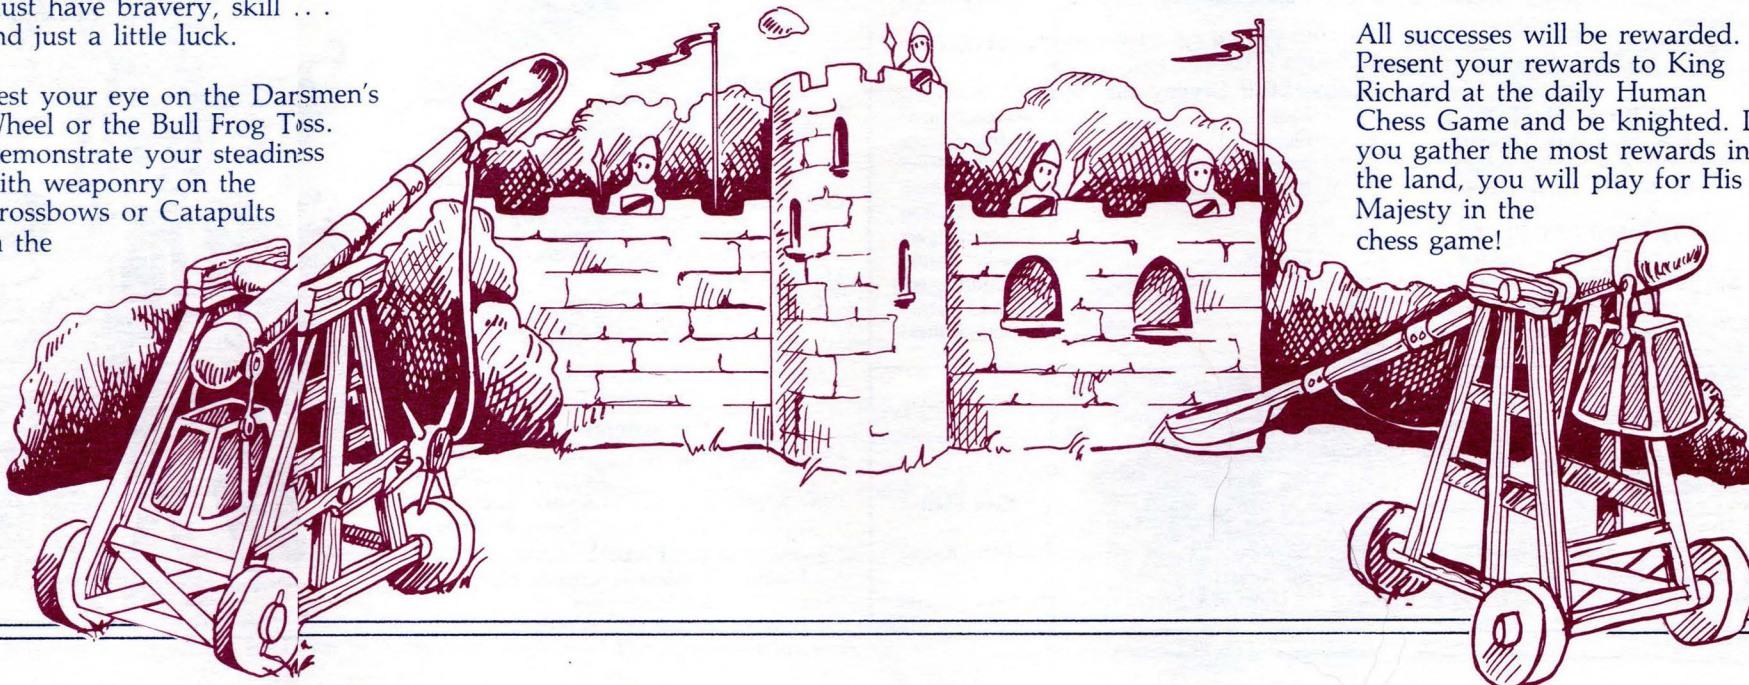

Test your eye on the Darsmen's Wheel or the Bull Frog Toss. Demonstrate your steadiness with weaponry on the Crossbows or Catapults in the Castle Siege. How good is your aim? Take the Archery challenge. Balance and stealth are tested on Jacob's Ladder.

Try the King's Joust and dismount your worthy opponent. Want something more dangerous? Face the ferocious reptiles in Slay the dragon or the Dragon's Treasure! Ride the elephants, ponies or camels to prove you are the bravest of all.

All successes will be rewarded. Present your rewards to King Richard at the daily Human Chess Game and be knighted. If you gather the most rewards in the land, you will play for His Majesty in the chess game!

HIS MAJESTY'S COURT

King Richard .....Ray Nelson

Queen Katherine .....Barbara Burinski

Lord High Chancellor

Mortimer Wolmsley .....Gary Boeck

Sir Percival Degage .....Richard Weber

Don Juan Gaspar .....Jose Granados

Miguel Rodrigo Jesus

Alfredo Estaban

de Zaragosa .....Douglas Kondziolka

Lords, Pages, Foresters,

Attendants and all Extras ...Leon D. Ramey

Lady Gwendolyn

Carew .....Mary Beth McMahon

Cricket,

the Court Fool .....Larry Bunton

Queen's Magician .....Tom Tremont

Robert of Woodstock,

the Court Balladeer .....David P. Knudten

SPECIAL AMBASSADORS TO RICHARD'S COURT

Leonardo da Vinci .....Leon D. Ramey

William Shakespeare .....Frank Harnish

and Harry Fitzroy .....Ryan Carroll

LOYAL SUBJECTS

THE QUEEN'S ACTING TROUPE

Corin Fairfax .....Richard Messick

Mopsa Fairfax .....Mari Jones

Will'm Fairfax .....Ron Myroup

Chastity Fairfax .....Cathy Sutliff

COLLEGE OF WIZARDS

Directed by Jeff Grygny

Artemedora .....Robin Martin

Crumbiades .....Ted Meisner

Merlin .....Steve Abrahamson

Constance .....Lisa Kampwirth

Lord of Fire .....Todd Terry

Lady Astrea .....Chris Kliesen

Malvolius Archimago .....Gordon Bourne

Mog Ogham .....Larry Page

Cornelius Gupper .....Eric Rath

Cob Ogham .....Jon Leamon

Production

Stage Manager .....Jayson Gralewicz

Stage Manager .....Stephanie Glanzmann

STICKS AND STONES

Ray St. Louis, Director

David Roe Jim Lillquist

Rio Blue Mark Dawson

THE PUPPET PLACE

Ray Nelson, Director

Steven Reynolds, Puppet Master

Brian Royal Chris Sherback

Lee Wagman Ron Fredrickson

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEN

Will Pynche .....Tony Wright

Dogsberry Stilton .....Oscar Jordan

Launce Edam .....John Gaynor

Grumio Gorgonzola .....Stephen Heise

Caliban Muenster .....Brian Conrad

QUEEN'S DANCE COMPANY

Choreographed by

Tanya Jones Picard

Lady Elizabeth .....Elizabeth Day

Lady Guenivere .....Leslie Unger

Lady Constance .....Lisa Howren

Sir Lionel .....Marc Vann

Sir John .....Kristopher Kory

Sir Roger .....Roger Prenger

Lady Amelia .....Anna Scoggins

Dance Captain .....Kitsy Olson

ELVES OF THE GREEN WORLD

Directed by

Jeff Grygny and Andrea Owens

King .....Gordon Bourne

Queen .....Andrea Owens

Jester/Shaman .....Randy Meyer

Bards .....Renee Aten

Lori Holton

Diane Ruegger

Guards .....Dusty Preslar-Traum

Todd Terry

David Ratner

Sean Sinitski

HANLON-LEES ACTION THEATER

Producing Director R. Vincent Park

Managing Director Dennis Metnick

Sir Ewain

of Essex .....Taso Stavarakis

Sir Stephen

of Alsatia .....Stephen B. Ommerle

Sir Douglas, Duke of

Buckingham .....David R. Krajec

Sir Thomas,

Duke of Kent .....Kent Shelton

Sir Richard Wyath .....Peter Rybolt

Sir Roberto,

Duke of Daveniere .....Richard Alvarez

CITIZENS

DON JUAN AND MIGUEL SHOW: Don Juan—Jose Granados; Miguel—Douglas Kondziolka. MADISON RENAISSANCE CON-SORT—director Jeff MacKinnon. Rolo Polo "The Crazy Spiceman from the Orient"—Danny Lord. Dinara and Ali—Dinara and Lee Guth. Town Crier—Phil Burchnell. The Flying Fool—Kennedy Schultz. Aurelius—Jeff Grygny. Brother Donald the Storyteller—Donald Heller. Michael's Master of Mixed-up Manipulation—Michael Vondruska.

THE COTTAGE: Mistress of the Cottage—Ann Slivinski; Maid of the Cottage—Mary Beth Kelleher; Caretaker of the Cottage—Tim Lynch; Wench of the Cottage—Charlene Huston.

THE BASIC FOOLS

Masked Theatre and Commedia

Spiney Nod-Jewels .....Jeff Semmerling

Isabella Botkin .....Barbara Geary

Susanna the Slav .....Suzanne Koeplinger

Quenten Quail .....Mark Ira Goldstein

Molly Coddle .....Jackie Krupka

MUSICIANS OF THE REALM

The Celtic and British Tradition

Sungarden .....Jim Brunke, Peggy Turner,

Bob Bielefeld

Celtic Stone .....Robin Lewellan, David

Clauss, Todd Menton,

Bruce Boyd

Bawdy Beggar Girls ...Jacquie Manning and

Marilyn Middleton

Lap Harpist .....Jerry Spurlock

Arianwen .....Judith Pintar

Maelen ApDafydd .....Betsie Hill

Dick Darby .....Rob Middleton

Dick's pal Mick .....Mick Wright

Martha Muddridge .....Martha Gay

Malcolm Muddridge .....Malcolm Smith

Barbara Allen .....Barbara Kotula

The Tinker MacLea .....Brian Leo

The Amazing

Howe Brother .....Paul Erickson

Peggoty .....Peg Lehman

Kevin O'Shea .....Kevin Crews

The Elven Bard .....Diane Ruegger

Gypsies' Violinist .....Janine Newfield

Brass Ensembles

Brass Concentus .....Russ Wolz, Director;

Roger Reupert, Rick

Leister, Charlie

Sernatinger, Scott

Sorenson

Congress

Brass Ensemble ...Lance Malina, Director:

Darren Malina, James

Hahn, Robert Cammack

Court Musician .....Brian Miller

Recorder Consorts

of the Maypole Meadow

Musickes Merrie

Companions...David Fitzgerald, Director:

(Appearing Sundays only.)

Our Lady's

Minstrels .....Carrie Scott, Director:

(Appearing Saturdays only.)

Percussionists

Michael Opat .....Jousts and

Percussion advisor

Peter Rogala .....Gypsy drummer,

Court drummer

Piper

Madison Renaissance Consort piper

Jeff MacKinnon

SCOUNDRELS, THUGS, GYPSIES,

ACTORS, PIRATES AND

NEFARIOUS UNDERGROUND FIGURES

Ali Ben Drahma—Leon D. Ramey. Belladonna Doria—Catherine Martineau. GYPSY DANCE TROUPE: Magda—Kitsy Olson; Saffi—Leslie Unger; Boris—Roger Prenger; Anitchka—Anna Scoggins; Yuri—Gunnar Carlberg; Choreographed by Tanya Jones Picard.

CROW'S NEST: Mistress—Rebecca Campbell; Innkeepers—Ed Buck and Walter Wojciechowski.

PIRATES: Bob the Pirate—Arthur Morison; Annie Bonnie—Anne Williamson. Mistress Hynde—Kris Barnes.

Smee and Blogg the Singing Executioners—John Doering and Allen Olson. Deante—James Ellis. Mistress Daltry—Chris Kliesen. The Brothers Grin and Bearit—Franklyn Garland and Richard Rupkalvis. Moxie Puppets—David Ballard. Gravediggers—William, Robin and Ryan Gardiner. Fang the Rat Catcher—Chris Tarjan. Fishmonger—Phil Johnson. Mistress Robin Adair—Robin Martin. Robert of Woodstock—David P. Knudten.

and of course . . . THE BEGGARS

Figgy Pudding .....Conrad Warren

Simon St. Albain .....J. Chris Hueben

Will'm the Poor .....Rush Pearson

Lutlah Faidinkum .....Tim Goforth

PRE-FAIRE

WORKSHOP FACILITY

Dr. Leslie Hinderyckx .....Northwestern

University

Professor Frank Harnish .....College of

Lake County

Sidney Lorber .....Barnes Lorber Costumes

1423 S. Second Street

Milwaukee, WI 53207

Celtic Stone .....Austin, TX

1984

KING RICHARD'S FAIRE STAFF

Co-Producers .....Bonnie Harris Shapiro
Richard Shapiro
Artistic Director .....John T. Mills

PRODUCTION STAFF

Executive Assistant to the Producers .....Deanna Bull
Director of Operations and Site Design .....James Dahl Administrative Aide to the Artistic Director ....Richard H. Smith
Comptroller .....Jean Coleman
Assistant to the Producers .....Lori McCarthur
Mistress of the Guilds .....Deanna Bull
Assistant Guild
Mistress .....Margaret Kramer
Groundskeeper/
Parking Lot .....Thomas Dohmen
Security .....Kenosha County Police
Publicity Directors ....Sigale, Smith & Mills
Oakbrook, Illinois
Barry Sigale
Sheldon Bauer
Advertising .....Mills Communications
Graphics .....Denise Harnish
Guild Masters .....W.H. Farnham
Rick Bedore
Sandra Steinweg
Rikki Kipple
Stan Gilbert
King's Kitchens .....Linda McFeters
Director of the King's Kitchens ....Martin W. Brenneman

ARTISTIC STAFF

Entertainment Director .....Michael Dvorak
Production
Coordinator .....Patrick Fitzpatrick
Production Assistants .....Karen Angel
Sandra Wood
Kimberley Grant
Technical Director/
Scenic Artist and New Market
Square Designer .....J. Skelly Warren
Technical Assistant .....Christopher Engelsman
Pre-Faire Technical
Director .....Peter Amato-von Hemert
Fight Director .....Jose Granados
Costume
Designer ....Barbara Thompson Schoenoff
Pyrotechnician .....Mark Hyde
Quartermaster .....Brian Conrad

ROMANCING THE THRONE GRAND SCENARIO

by Doug Frew and Patti McKenny
Directed by .....Patrick Fitzpatrick
Musical Director .....Michael A. Dvorak
Fight Director .....Jose Granados
Production
Stage Manager .....Karen Angel

AS YOU LIKE IT

by William Shakespeare
Directed by .....John T. Mills
Musical Director .....Michael A. Dvorak
Production
Manager .....Patrick Fitzpatrick
Scenic Designer .....J. Skelly Warren

BECOME AN APPRENTICE

Did you ever seriously wish to be part of the "living theatre" that is the Faire? Well, beneath the whiteface, the costumes and the make-up are skilled and trained professional performers. Many of them have received their training right here at the Faire as Apprentices. You too can be an apprentice.

The ten-week Apprentice Program, offered to students interested and experienced in the performing arts by King Richard's Faire at no tuition expense, consists of classes, workshops and practical experience covering a broad spectrum of performance disciplines. Included are acting, stage combat, improvisation, dance, music, mime and juggling.

All classes and workshops are taught by professional artists and educators who also perform throughout the Faire.

Those interested in the Apprenticeship Program may receive information by calling or writing the Faire office, or by requesting information at the Remembrance Shop.

FAIRE DATES & HOURS

Opens the Weekend of July 7 and 8
Continues Every Weekend through August 19.
10:30 AM to 7:00 PM

TICKETS

ADULTS—$8.50 • CHILDREN 5 TO 12—$3.50
CHILDREN UNDER 5—FREE

GROUP SALES

Group Sales Unlimited
P.O. Box 10221, Chicago, IL 60610
312/951-7683

SPECIAL DISCOUNTS FOR GROUPS OF 25 OR MORE.

FREE PARKING

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION

For further information or to request a complete service guide that includes area campgrounds, hotels, motels and service stations, call or write:

KING RICHARD'S FAIRE

12420 128th Street, Kenosha, WI 53142
312/689-2800 or 414/396-4385

IRE

