KING RICHARD'S FAIRE

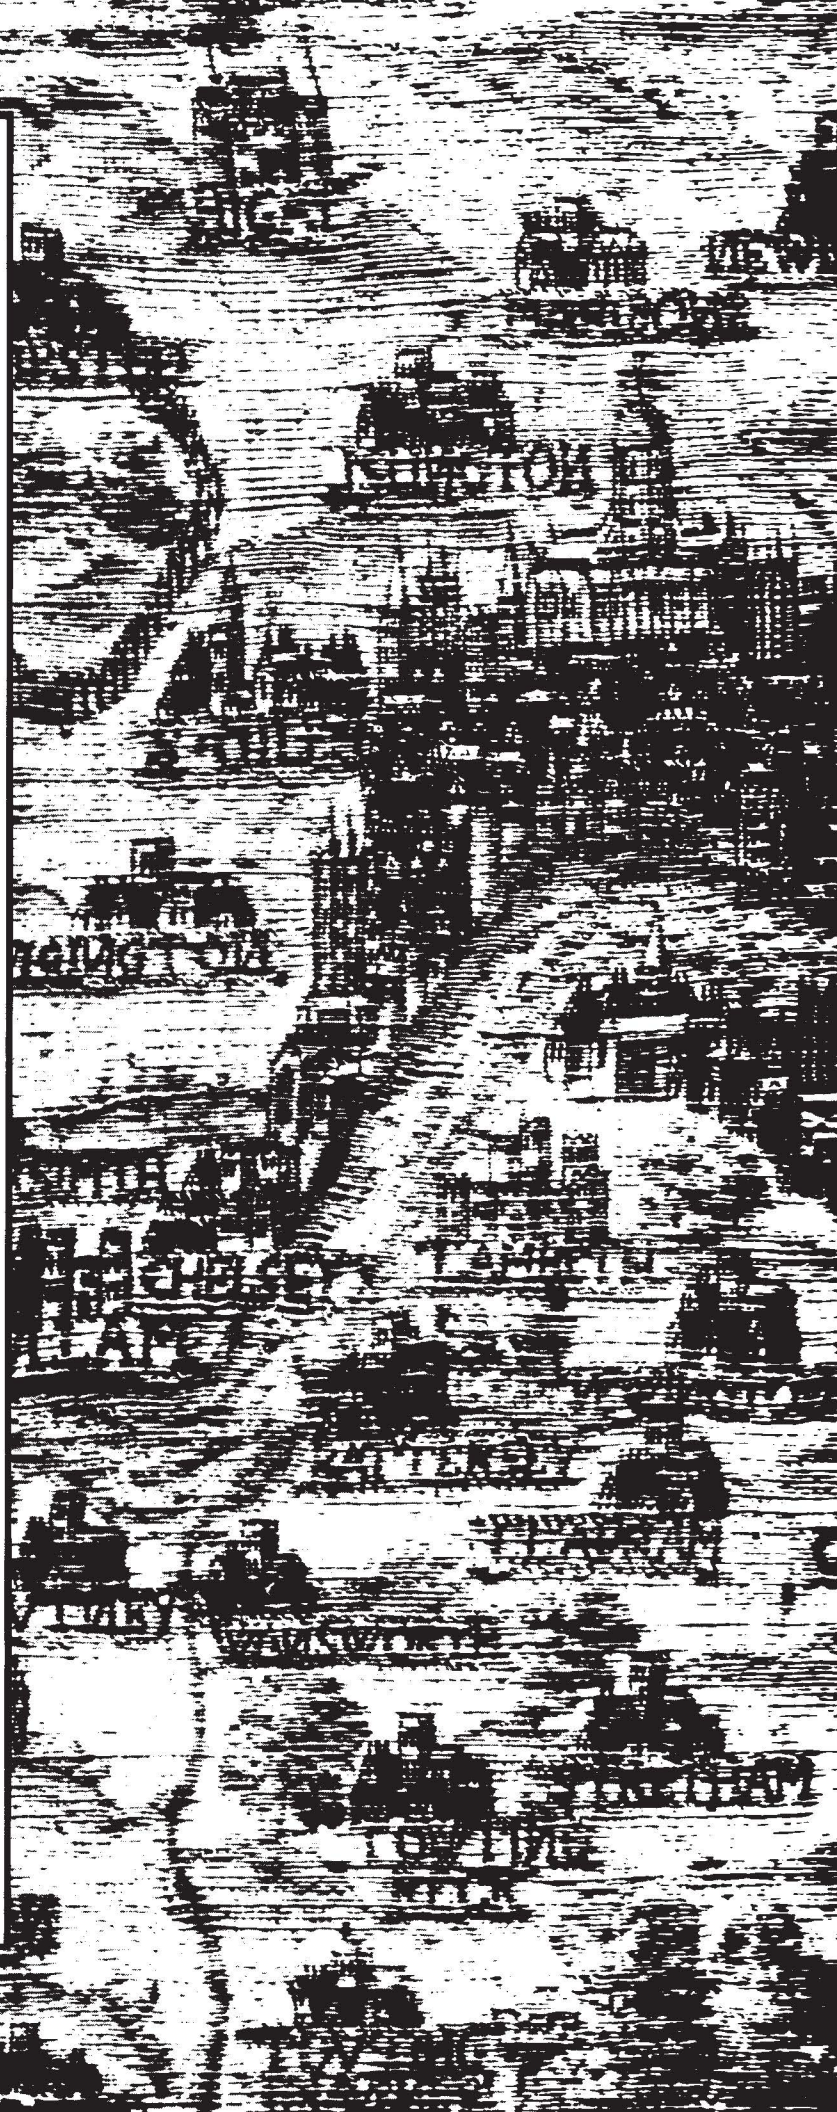

DISCOVER THE REALM

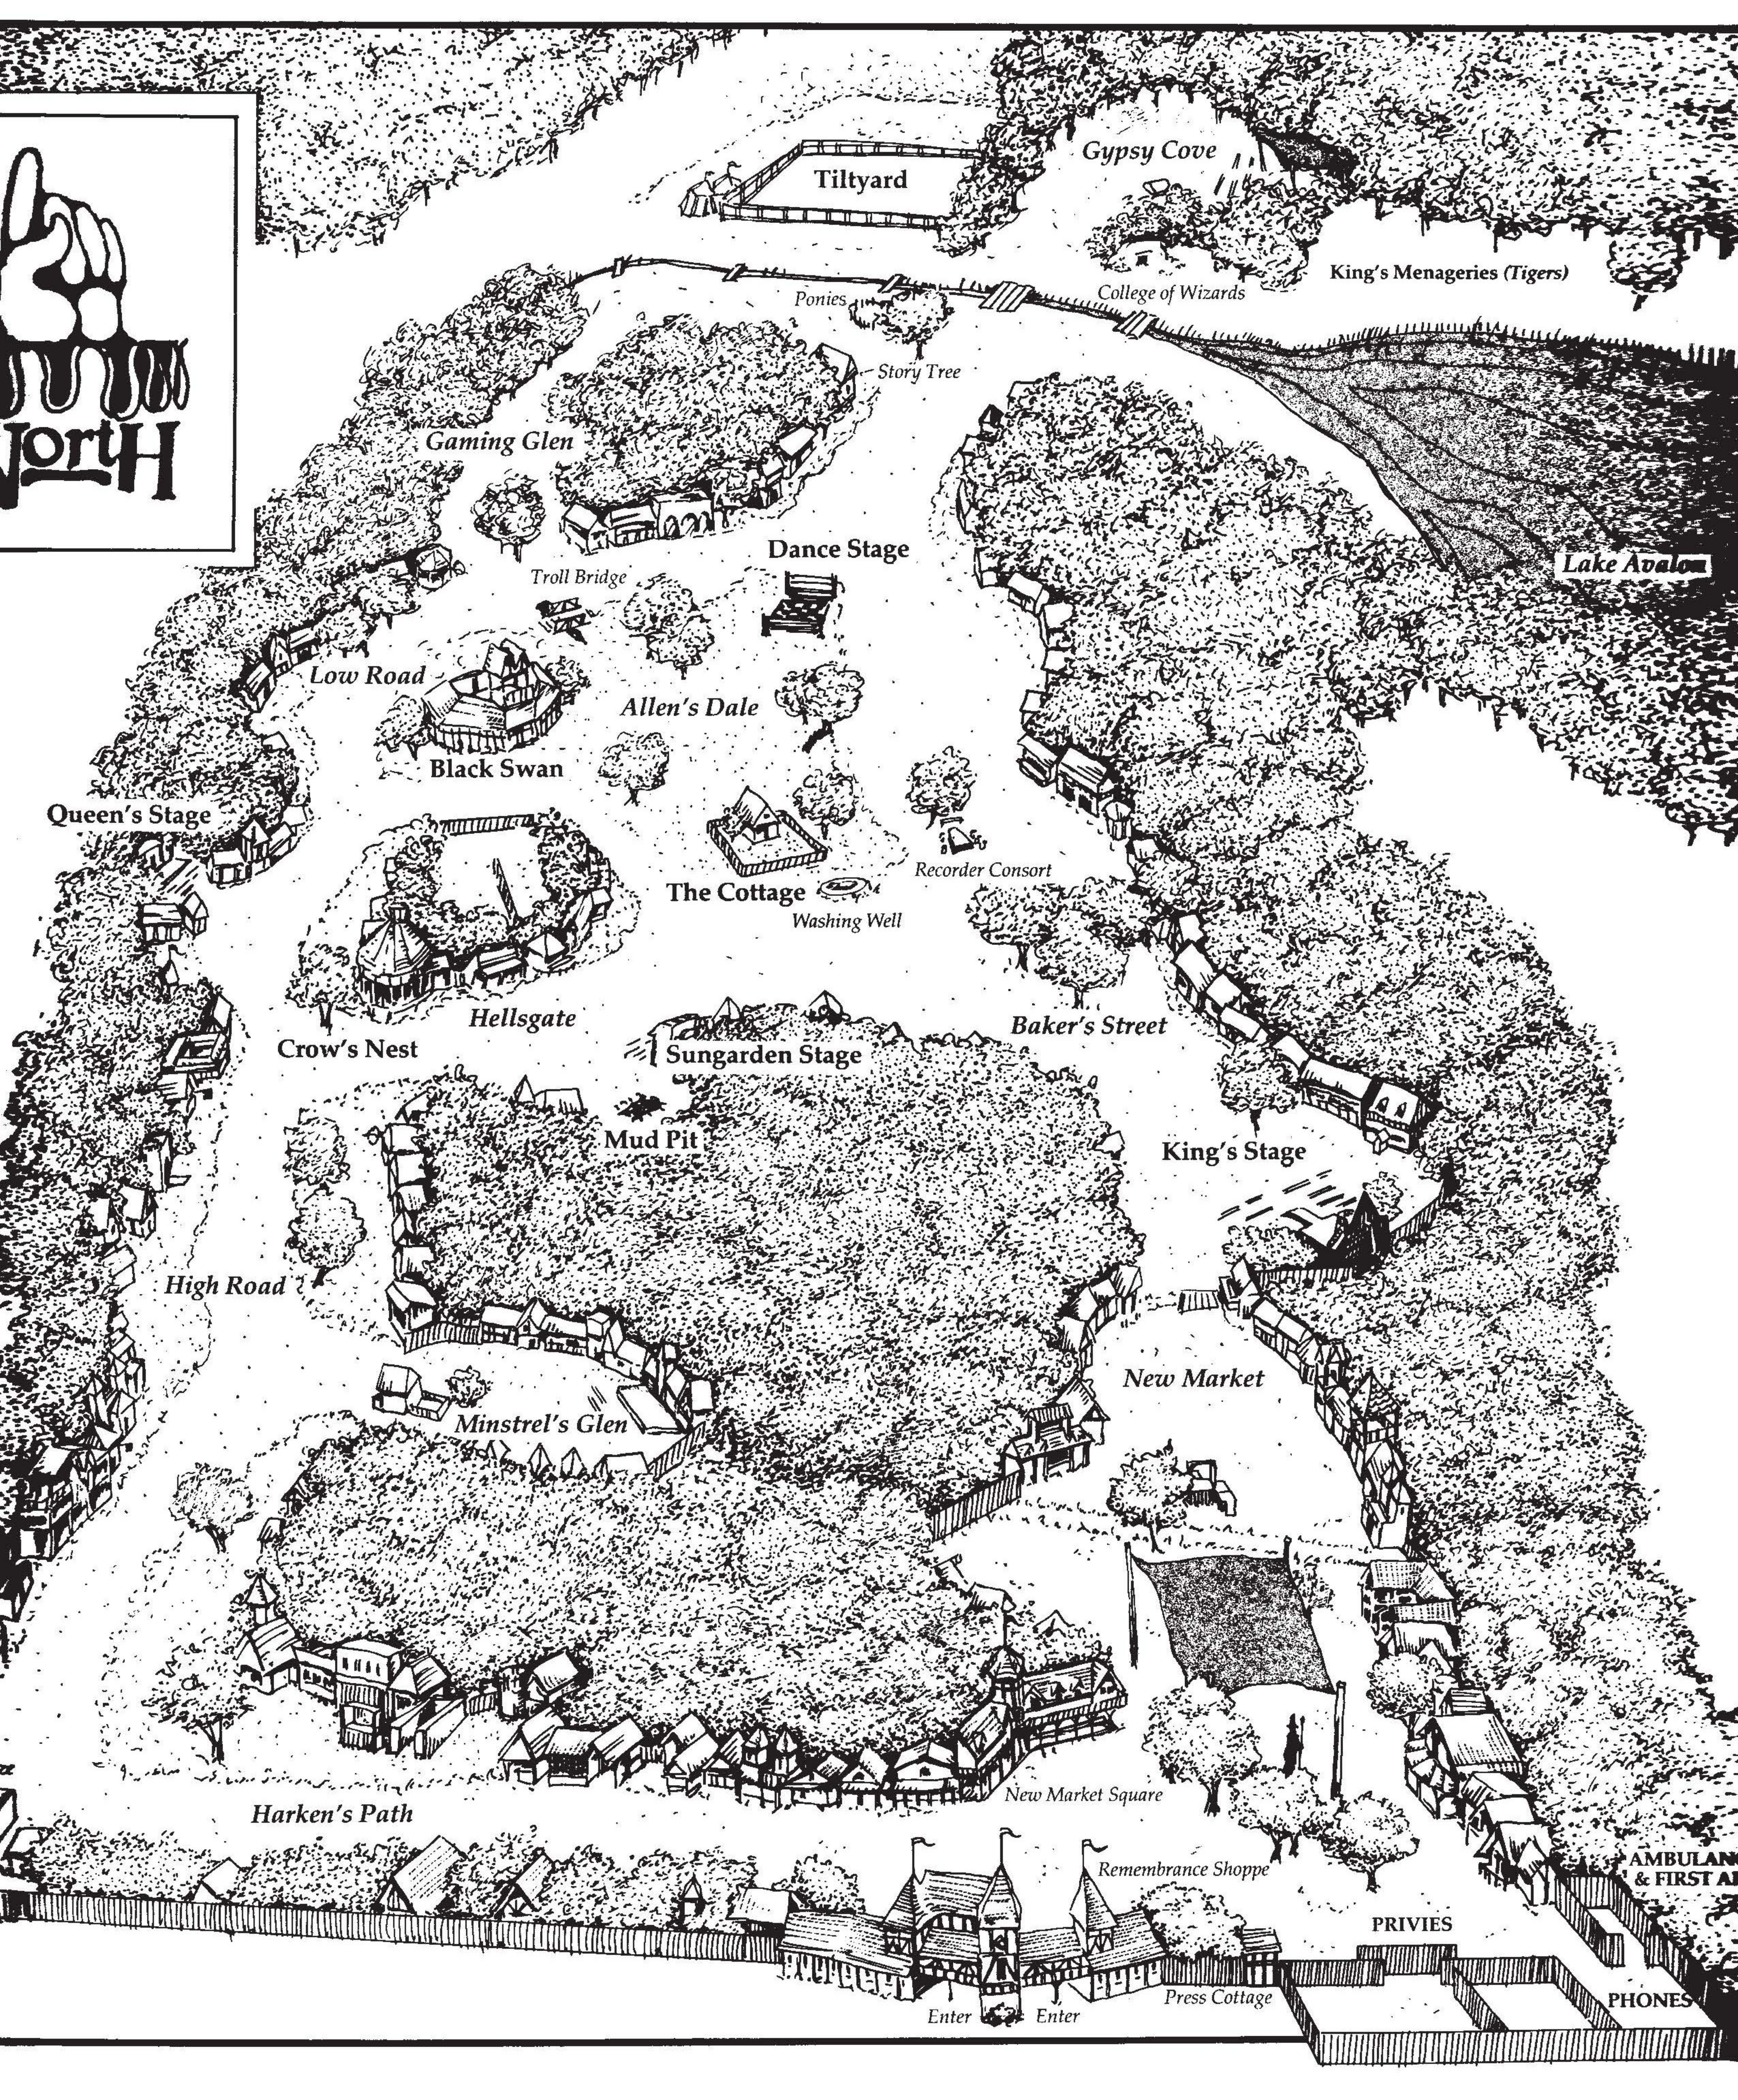

Forget your modern work-a-day worries, twentieth-century people. Join us as we step back in time to an era long, long ago in a kingdom far, far away. Lose yourself in the wonder and merriment of King Richard's Faire – A Return to the Renaissance.

Stroll through Richard's Realm on shady woodland paths. View hand-crafted marvels made for your delight. Watch artisans create new and wonderous crafts and wares before your very eyes. These items are available for purchase as a remembrance of your journey. Many sumptuous foods and drinks await your sampling. Richard's chefs labor long and arduously to bring you these special treats. Enjoy the continuous performances of Richard's talented townsfolk – everything from ropewalkers, jugglers and musicians to the hilarious antics of the Beggars. Join in the search for the Lost Crown of Andalusia and learn of the Legend surrounding it. Thrill to the daring and danger of live jousts. Share the experience of Richard's celebration of the Renaissance.

King Richard's Faire is a theatrical interpretation of a period 400 years ago. The Renaissance (French for re-birth) was a time of rediscovery and awakening from the Dark Ages; a time of exploration, romance and adventure; a time of great writing and creativity; a striving for knowledge and immortality. All can be found at the Faire.

King Richard's Faire exists for your pleasure and entertainment. Experience the Renaissance and see why we still celebrate its gifts. Join in the festivities. Let the Legend begin! King Richard bids you hail and welcome!!

ORDER of the REVELS

All performers are paid out of the King's personal treasury. In keeping with the fashion of the time, His Majesty's Players may ask for further consideration. If this be the case, let wisdom and discretion be your tutor.

* WHO ARE THE GYPSIES?

About 1000 A.D., a group of tribes from Northern India began to wander the world. We have the first records of them reaching Europe in the 1400s. Soon everyone was talking about the mysterious folks they thought were "Egyptians." For awhile, they were fascinating to the Europeans, and often entertained at the homes of nobles. But then these "Gypsies" began to be blamed for many crimes – even for being cannibals or vampires. Edicts came down and the Gypsies were thrown out of one country after another. But they managed to keep coming back, as many people secretly valued them for their traditional skills – horse-dealing, metalwork, intricate crafts, singing and dancing, and the occult arts.

True Gypsies – "Rom" or "Romanies" – exist all over the world today. Some people find them ruthless thieves and outcasts. Some people have been so attracted that they've forsaken civilization to go with them. Some people think they're the only truly free spirits. You can draw your own conclusions within this Renaissance re-creation. You decide whether they're scary, disgusting, chic, pesky, or lovable – whether they spread plague or spread charm, steal chickens or steal somebody's heart. The Rom have come to Richard's Realm. How will you know them? They just have this look in their eyes . . .

LEGEND OF THE LOST CROWN

By Patti McKenny and Doug Frew

What's got King Richard so stirred up at Faire Time? Nobles, knights, wanderers, musicians, vendors, elves, pirates, beggars – all are abuzz with the news. The Gypsies* have come to the Realm! These exotic, mysterious, mischievous strangers have set up camp at the Faire. Besides their fortune-telling, horsetrading, bartering, singing and dancing, they'll be crowning the King of the Gypsies and holding other colorful festivities. Our King Richard and Queen Katherine are pleased with their colorful guests. Visiting King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella are furious: they exiled the wandering Gypsies from Spain as heathen and thieves.

Can you help find the Lost Crown of Andalusia? Should it go to Ferdinand, or to the Gypsies who fashioned it? Will you cheer or scorn the romance between Prince Duncan of Scotland and Gypsy Reyna? Will you make friends with the raggle-taggle Gypsies, or turn them in to the guards? Will you be discovered in Queen Katherine's New Talent Search? Are you the Lost Princess of Andalusia? Will the Gypsies be exiled . . . or worse?

Don't just find out. Join us. Join the festivities, the quest for the Lost Crown, the Gypsy Revel; join the soldiers and tradespeople, the nobles and beggars, wenches, as we celebrate King Richard's Faire with "The Legend Of The Lost Crown."

Episode One: "We Three Kings Disoriented Are"

July 6, 7, 13, 14

New Chancellor Sir Percival Degagé opens the festivities assuring King Richard that all will be well . . . but he has reason to worry. Gypsies cavort through the Realm singing, dancing, playing tricks, terrorizing the townsfolk, and announcing the crowning of their King. King Ferdinand of Spain accuses the Gypsies of stealing the Lost Crown of Andalusia; he goes about attacking them all over the kingdom, trying to get the Crown back. Prince Duncan meets Gypsy dancer Reyna: love at first sight, and the kingdom is scandalized. Queen Katherine herself joins Queen Isabella in the search for the Lost Princess of Andalusia. The Realm is on edge. No one is safe from Ferdinand's mission . . . are you?

Episode Two: "The Curse of the Evil Eye"

July 20, 21, 27, 28

King Ferdinand enlists the very scary Dark Wizard to help him frighten the Gypsies into giving up the Lost Crown. But the Gypsies insist they have no idea where it is. Tensions mount and the struggle heats up, till the Gypsy witch Zenobia must battle the Dark Wizard in a supernatural duel with tragic results. Meanwhile, Prince Duncan, with the aid of various lowlifes of the kingdom, disguises himself and tries to become a Gypsy in an attempt to win Reyna's heart. Now Ferdinand pursues him too; Duncan goes into hiding, and Queen Katherine consults with Gypsies and Realmfolk seeking Duncan's whereabouts. But the Gypsies aren't talking . . . are you?

Episode Three: "What Becomes A Legend Most?"

August 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, 18

King Ferdinand seizes Reyna! He plans to hold her hostage in exchange for the Lost Crown. All hell breaks loose. Both sides vie for the Lost Crown, there are daring escapes and counter-attacks, Queen Katherine quarrels with Queen Isabella, King Richard challenges King Ferdinand to a duel, Duncan emerges from hiding, and the Lost Princess of Andalusia is revealed at last. Will Reyna be executed? Will Spain and England go to war? Will the Gypsies be banished? Will romance triumph? No one knows, but the Gypsies are singing, dancing, feasting and laughing . . . are you?

Meet our characters at the Opening of the Gates (10:30).

See the conflict begin at 12:30, at the Royal Proclamation on the King's Stage.

Did you ever seriously wish to be part of the "living theatre" that is the Faire? Well, beneath the whiteface, the costumes and the make-up are skilled and trained professional performers. Many of them have received training right here at the Faire as Apprentices. You too can be an Apprentice.

The Apprentice Program, offered to anyone interested or experienced in the performing arts by King Richard's Faire at no tuition expense, consists of classes, workshops and practical experience covering a broad spectrum of performance disciplines. Included are acting, stage combat, improvisation, dance, music, mime and juggling.

All the classes and workshops are taught by professional artists and educators, who work side by side with Apprentices from pre-Faire classes through the seven weekends of the Faire.

Those interested in the Apprenticeship Program may receive information by calling or writing the Faire office.
